Dear Mr Hustberg,

Just a brief note to express my gratitude to you and your lovely wife for the hospitality extended to me last week. The conversation, the company, the lunch - all just simply delightful. I only regret so that I did not know more than I did, so that questions could have been better placed. Nonetheless, I am most appreciative for your help.

Incidentally, I spoke with Doug Mallette and he is sending you a copy of his editorial cartoon.

Again, thank you so much, and please give my best to Mrs. Hustberg.

Cordially,

Chip Smith
